

I am appalled that Sinclair Broadcasting is forcing its stations to air a video, whether they want to or not, about John Kerry and that is against the election laws. This is a clear problem with the monopoly of media conglomerates.